Note on the Administration of Civil Justice in the North-Western Provinces during the calendar year 1893.

I.—COURTS SUBORDINATE TO THE HIGH COURT.

(a).—Original Jurisdiction.

The following table shows the course of judicial business for the last six years :— Suits. Judicial Statement No. 9, Part I.

	Instituted.	Total for disposal, including remands, reviews, and revivals.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1888	97,067	107,102	97,443	9,659
1889	95,226	106,831	96,061	10,770
1890	93,684	106,447	95,553	10,894
1891	88,251	100,983	90,291	10,692
1892	95,193	107,725	96,765	10,960
1893	95,056	107,910	96,649	11,261

There is no noticeable variation in 1893 from the figures of the preceding year. The one striking fact is that the pending file is steadily rising. The district figures also are fairly constant except in four districts. In Sháhjahánpur the institutions rose by 1,002, and the disposals by 889, so that the pending file was not largely swollen. In Cawnpore institutions fell by 685, disposals by 254 and pending suits by 307. In Benares institutions fell by 184, but disposals (owing chiefly to a block in the Munsif's court) were 549 fewer and so the pending file rose by 319. In Gházipur though institutions were 99 less, and disposals 644 more than in 1892, the pending file fell by 209 only. Table A.

One cause of the general increase in the pending file may have been the fact that the contested cases decided were slightly more numerous than in 1892, the figures being :—

	1892.	1893.
Contested	27,396	27,567
Decided on arbitration	1,076	1,199
Untried or uncontested	68,293	67,883

There was also no considerable extension of the use of Small Cause Court powers by the regular courts during the year.

2. Details of the increase and decrease of suits instituted in each district are as follow :—

Increase.

Sháhjahánpur	1,002	Jhánsi	147
Meerut	323	Jaunpur	109
Aligarh	257	Moradabad	47
Gorakhpur	231

Decrease.

Cawnpore	685	Allahabad	117
Saháranpur	272	Mirzapur	104
Azamgarh	190	Gházipur	99
Agra	184	Bareilly	98
Benares	184	Mainpuri	91
Bánda	162	Farukhabad	67

The very great rise in Sháhjahánpur is attributed to increase of money-lending and sugar-refining business. The great decrease in Cawnpore is generally ascribed to the introduction into the city of the octroi duty, which injuriously affected trade; but the Judge considers the explanation doubtful.

Judicial Statement No. 7.

3. Of the 95,056 suits instituted 69,377 were suits for money or moveable property, 12,434 were for immoveable property, 8,903 were mortgage suits, 1,958 were for specific relief, and 1,772 were to establish a right of pre-emption. Under none of these classes is a comparison possible with the figures of preceding years as the classification has been entirely altered.

Judicial Statement No. 8.

4. The values of the subject matter in dispute during the last six years have been :—

	Rs.
In 1888	2,47,55,647
„ 1889	2,76,81,497
„ 1890	2,77,15,803
„ 1891	2,28,59,300
„ 1892	2,58,85,331
„ 1893	2,55,42,173

The small difference is entirely in the suits in the courts of Subordinate Judges and may be ascribed to the fact that in 1892 a suit valued at over 10 lakhs had been instituted in the court of the Subordinate Judge of Azamgarh. The suits instituted in District Judges' courts continued to decline in value.

5. The percentage of contested suits to suits disposed of rose again. Six years' figures are 28·9, 28·5, 28 9, 29, 28·3, and (for 1893) 28·5.

6. The percentage of suits in which plaintiffs were successful fell considerably from 58·5 to rather less than 56·8, the larger proportionate fall being in ex parte decrees, from 29·7 to 28·5.

7. The average duration in contested suits fell from 79 days in 1892 to 76 days in 1893. The improvement is common to all classes of courts and is especially noticeable in Subordinate Judges' and District Judges', where the figures are 154 and 240 days against 164 and 265 days respectively.

In uncontested cases the duration fell from 34 to 33 days, rising in the Small Cause Courts and Subordinate Judges' courts and falling in District Judges' courts.

8. The principal changes in the number of cases pending between the beginning and close of the year were in the following districts :—

District.	Increase.	District.	Decrease.
Benares	319	Ghazipur	206
Cawnpore	307	Agra	158
Jaunpur	176	Meerut	155
Allahabad	135	Jhansi	122

These districts are eight of the nine noticed in this connection a year ago. But Benares and Allahabad have changed sides for the worse, and Ghazipur and Agra for the better. In the others increase and decrease is continuous. That at Meerut is accounted for by there being an additional Subordinate Judge there for 7 months of the year, and an additional Munsif for practically the whole year. Gorakhpur had an additional Subordinate Judge the whole year; Shahjahanpur only for a month at the end. At Ballia an additional Munsif sat for 6 months only.

9. The file of pending suits at the close of the year was above 500 in the following districts :—

Saharanpur	1,165	Shahjahanpur	775
Gorakhpur	1,056	Agra	698
Ghazipur	889	Jaunpur...	665
Benares	817	Aligarh	553
Moradabad	812	Azamgarh	504
Meerut	782

Cawnpore has disappeared from the list, but Benares and Azamgarh have returned to it, and Jaunpur and Aligarh are new additions.

10. The numbers of witnesses summoned, of witnesses examined, and of parties examined during the last 3 years may be thus compared :—

	1891.	1892.	1893
Witnesses summoned	236,391	245,379	262,490
Witnesses examined	104,867	113,809	111,526
Parties examined	21,662	25,566	25,218

The great rise in the number of witnesses summoned compared with the number of those examined seems to indicate that parties incur unnecessary expense in this matter. The number of parties examined is still small compared with the number of cases.

11. The amount of diet money paid to witnesses was as follows :—

	Rs.	Average per witness.
1891	1,32,076	9 Annas.
1892	1,33,569	„ 4 pies.
1893	1,43,767	„ 9 „

The lowest averages are in the eastern districts, the highest in Meerut and in Bundelkhand.

12. The figures of miscellaneous cases for the last six years are as follows ;—

1888	26,780
1889	30,888
1890	33,859
1891	17,169
1892	53,961
1893	51,714

Miscellaneous cases (Judicial). Judicial statement No. 9, Part II

The increase is in Munsifs' courts and Small Cause Courts.

13. The number of contested cases disposed of rose by 690, and there were 203 fewer cases pending at the end of the year than at the beginning. The average duration in contested cases was 48 against 51 in the previous year, and in uncontested cases 29 against 30.

14. Details of duration in contested cases for 3 years in the different courts are these :—

	1891. Days.	1892. Days.	1893. Days.
Munsifs' courts ...	42	45	42
Small Cause Courts ...	33	37	36
Subordinate Judges' courts ...	67	61	62
District Judges' courts ...	110	121	109

15. The work of executing decrees in the past 6 years has been as follows :—

Execution of decrees. Judicial statement No. 11.

	Applications for execution.
	For disposal.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1888	111,291	95,374	15,917
1889	111,041	95,759	15,885
1890	105,516	89,180	16,336
1891	99,115	82,012	17,103
1892	100,093	83,866	16,227
1893	100,035	86,299	14,736

16. The realizations exceeded those of 1892 by Rs. 7,30,000. The percentage on the applications disposed of by the courts themselves of proceedings fructuous wholly or in part, is higher than any recent corresponding figure :

	Percentage.
1888	34·2
1889	35·7
1890	39·2
1891	46·3
1892	45·6
1893	49·2

The continuous improvement indicates a persistent attempt on the part of the courts to carry out the High Court's directions as to the importance of this class of work.

17. This percentage varies considerably in the different districts, as the following figures shew. It would a priori appear to depend not only on the efforts of the courts but on the character of the population and the variations in season. Each district, except Cawnpore and Bánda, which have fallen, and Meerut, which has risen, (in all 3 cases probably from temporary causes) has maintained in 1893 almost exactly the same place in the list as in 1892.

District.	Percentage in— 1892.	1893.
Allahabad	57	62
Jhansi	56	53
Jaunpur	50	51
Ghazipur	48	51
Sháhjahánpur	47	51
Farukhabad	47	50
Azamgarh	48	49
Aligarh	44	46
Mainpuri	42	46
Moradabad	43	45
Cawnpore	48	45
Meerut	34	43
Bareilly	41	43
Saharanpur	40	41
Mirzapur	38	41
Benares	35	39
Bánda	43	37
Agra	32	36
Gorakhpur	27	32

18. In Munsifs' courts the best percentages were East Budaun 72, Ballia 68, Allahabad (First Munsif) 66, Tilhar 62, Kanauj 61, and Mariahu 60. Basti as before is worst with 22 per cent. only. Here also last year's successful courts are successful this year again.

19. There was a considerable increase in the number of cases in which the judgment-debtor was arrested, of those in which he was imprisoned, and of those in which his immoveable property was sold. Sales of moveable property decreased. The comparative figures are :—

	1892.	1893.
Judgment-debtor imprisoned	425	483
„ „ arrested	1,265	1,541
Immoveable property sold	5,808	6,749
Moveable property sold	2,120	1,913

20. Of 9,019 decrees transferred to other courts for disposal 7,006, as compared with 6,935 out of 9,100 in 1892, were transferred to Collectors under section 320 of the Code of Civil Procedure for action against the judgment-debtor's ancestral property. Such cases were most numerous in the following districts :—

District.	Number of Decrees.	District.	Number of Decrees.
Gorakhpur	1,292	Moradabad	421
Meerut	682	Aligarh	408
Saharanpur	639	Azamgarh	398
Agra	552	Shahjahanpur	391
Mainpuri	536

In Aligarh and Mainpuri there is a slight increase, and in Gorakhpur an unexplained increase of over 31 per cent. The other district figures are stationary or decreasing

(b).—Appellate Jurisdiction.

Appeals f om Decrees. Judicial Statement No. 10.

21. The following figures shew the state of the appellate files of all subordinate courts for the last 5 years :—

	Cases.
	For disposal.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1889	15,445	9,888	5,557
1890	15,648	9,115	6,533
1891	17,140	10,658	6,462
1892	16,147	10,602	5,545
1893	16,264	9,812	6,452

A slight increase in the percentage of contested appeals decided perhaps conduced to the rise in the pending file.

Tables B, C, & E.

22. Of tho 9,812 appeals disposed of the details are :—

	From—
	Rent court decisions.	Subordinate Judges' decisions.	Munsifs' decisions.	Total.
By District Judges ...	970	1,256	1,447	3,673
„ Subordinate Judges ...	...	...	5,695	5,695
„ S. C. C. Judges with jurisdiction of Subordinate Judges ...	...	...	444	444
Total ...	970	1,256	7,596	9,812

23. The District Judges decided 12 fewer appeals from Rent courts, 9 more from Subordinate Judges', and 177 fewer from 'Munsifs'. The Judges' courts deciding the largest number were :—

		Number.
District Judge of	Saháranpur	422
Ditto	Sháhjahánpur	383
Ditto	Ghazipur	351
Ditto	Moradabad	310
Ditto	Gorakhpur	298
Ditto	Mainpuri	263

It may be noted that a reduced number of civil appellate decisions was accompanied in Meerut, Moradabad (both District and Additional Judges' Courts), and Bareilly with a very large increase in criminal sessions trials, and in Cawnpore and Banda with a large increase in criminal appellate and revisional work. On the other hand a reduction in sessions cases in Benares, and in criminal appellate and revisional work in Farukhabad and Mainpuri, was accompanied with more work in civil appeals.

24. In Farukhabad and Mainpuri also the Judge was assisted during part of the year by an Additional Sessions Judge; while in Saharanpur an Additional Civil and Sessions Judge was for a time appointed. The office of Judge was vacant in the following districts during the year :—

	No. of days.
Mirzapur	29
Cawnpore	36
Gorakhpur	16

25. The largest numbers of appeals from decisions of Rent courts were disposed of in Ghazipur 237, Saharanpur 114, Mainpuri 104 and Moradabad 87.

Table C.

26. The average number of appeals decided by those courts of Subordinate Judges, which heard appeals, was only 300 against 321 in 1892. Only 19 such courts heard appeals against 20 in the previous year. In Banda, Mirzapur and Jhansi, as in that year, the Subordinate Judge heard none. The general decrease of 724 disposals in appeal cannot be explained by any increase in the number of suits decided; the decreased average is perhaps due to an increased disposal of miscellaneous and execution cases.

27. The following courts disposed of the largest numbers of appeals :—

	No of cases.
Additional Subordinate Judge, Gorakhpur	1,060
" " Ghazipur	602
Subordinate Judge, Ghazipur	540
Additional Subordinate Judge, Meerut (in 7 months)	401
Subordinate Judge, Bareilly	398
" " Aligarh	362
" " Moradabad	341
" " Mainpuri	317

28. A comparison of the pending files of appeals at the end of the last 5 years may be made from the figures given in paragraph 21. The division of cases between the courts of District Judges and of Subordinate Judges depends very largely on the extent of use of the powers of transfer possessed by the former. Of appeals pending over 3 months the following are the details :—

	1889.	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.
Before Subordinate Judges	1,490	340	757	420	426
Before District Judges	1,983	1,049	1,058	729	1,075
	3,473	1,389	1,815	1,149	1,501

29. Although there is an increased number of long pending appeals at the end of the year, the average duration of appeals disposed of has fallen, the last six years' figures being 117, 167, 172, 169, 175, and (1893) 148 respectively. Details between the classes of courts are—

	Days.
	1888.	1889.	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.
Subordinate Judges	84	130	150	148	136	101
District Judges	163	204	201	203	246	226

30. The result of appellate decisions is continuously less and less favourable to the decisions of the lower courts :—

	Upheld.	Modified.	Reversed.	Remanded.
1888	60·2	14·8	17·	8
1889	60·1	14·4	18·5	7
1890	62·2	14·2	17·3	6
1891	64·3	12·6	16·7	6
1892	61·2	13·9	18·6	6
1893	60·2	14·5	19·3	6

31. The number of objections under section 561 for the past six years has been 470, 422, 376, 504, 380 and (1893) 425.

32. Only 21 appeals were summarily rejected against 13 in 1892.

Miscellaneous Appeals (Judicial). Judicial Statement, No. 10, Part II.

33. During the last four years the miscellaneous judicial appeals have varied thus :—

	Appeals.
	For disposal.	Disposed of.	Pending.
1890 ...	1,751	1,191	560
1891 ...	1,120	901	219
1892 ...	734	568	166
1893 ...	631	502	129

The decline explained last year still continues.

34. The following table gives details of disposals by courts :—

	Disposals.
	1890.	1891.	1892.	1893.
District Judges	946	668	448	414
Subordinate Judges	228	233	120	88

35. The duration continues to decrease :—

Tables B, C, and D.

In calculating the average District or Subordinate Judge's work, that done by the temporary Additional Judges has been excluded; and the Small Cause Court Judges of Agra and Allahabad, who did very little regular work, have also been excluded.

37. One District Judge, seven Subordinate Judges, and 27 Munsifs in the exercise of Small Cause Court powers disposed of cases with the following average numbers :—

	Judge.	Subordinate Judges.	Munsifs.
Suits	20	628	461
Execution of decrees	...	341	120
Miscellaneous cases	...	89	14

38. In the following districts the time at the disposal of the District Judge for Civil business was limited :—

Bareilly	...	...	...	...	...	59 days.
Meerut	...	...	...	...	...	78 „
Gorakhpur	...	...	...	...	...	95 „

The almost universal increase in the number of sessions trials, which was most noteworthy in Meerut, Moradabad, Bareilly, Agra and Farukhabad caused a corresponding decrease in the average outturn of civil work. The assistance given to Judges during the year has already been noted. There are some districts in which the work is now without doubt beyond the powers of one Judge, and the question of dealing with them is engaging the High Court's attention.

II.—HIGH COURT.

39. The following figures show the state of civil business, which came before the High Court during 1892 and 1893 :—

	Institutions with pending file of previous year		Disposals.		Pending at the close.
	1892.	1893.	1892.	1893.	1892.	1893.

During the year 1893 the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council determined six appeals from the Court. In four cases the decision was upheld, in one modified, and in one reversed.

40. The average duration of the cases decided by the Court calculated in days was as follows :—

	1891.	1892.	1893.

„ 2 Contested	205	164	149

42. Of the First Appeals pending at the end of the year the dates of institution were as follows : one of 1888, two of 1889, six of 1890, forty-two of 1891, two hundred and seventeen of 1892, and two hundred and ninety-nine of 1893.

43. The Second Appeals instituted during the year fall into the following grades of value :—

44. The Second Appeals pending at the end of the year were of the following standing ; 5 of 1890, 70 of 1891, 532 of 1892, and 947 of 1893.

45. The following table shows the general result of the hearing of First and Second Appeals determined during the year :—

			F. A.	S. A.

One hundred and fifty-seven Second Appeals were summarily rejected under section 551 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Of contested First Appeals in 69·6 per cent. the decrees appealed against were confirmed, as against 72·5 per cent. in 1892. In Second Appeals the percentage was 73·9 as against 75·6 in 1892.

Increase.
(4) Fees for amins	29
(5) Other process fees	4,845
(6) Judicial record-fund	11,005
(7) Sale of intestate property	1,290

47. The court-fees stamps received in subordinate courts during the last 3 years have had the following values :—

Year.	Rs.
1891	... 16,52,038
1892	... 17,03,588
1893	... 16,87,860

These figures fluctuate necessarily in a ratio to some extent corresponding with the ratio of fluctuation of the values of suits; the correspondence is not complete owing partly to appeals filed in any one year relating mostly to suits whose value has been included in previous year's returns, and partly to the large number of fixed fees. There is no striking alteration in any one district to notice.

48. In the High Court there was a decrease under this head of Rs. 36,239, which is partly accounted for by an increase in refunds from Rs. 1,243 to Rs. 7,962. The examination of documents liable to court-fees in the taxing office of the Court led to the realization of additional fees to the amount of Rs. 2,276-14 in 1893 against Rs. 1,126 during 1892.

49. There has been a decrease of Rs. 2,635 in the "duties and penalties on instruments not duly stamped," owing to the absence of any exceptional case, like that which occurred in 1892 in Allahabad. The districts in which the largest recoveries were made were :—

Districts.	Rs.
Allahabad	1,047
Saháranpur	737
Meerut	665
Gorakhpur	635
Bareilly	628
Moradabad	556

50. Under the head "Judicial Record Fund" the continuous increase amounts to Rs. 8,783 in subordinate courts and Rs. 2,224 in the High Court. In districts the chief changes were—

Increase.	Rs.	Decrease.	Rs.
Gházipur	2,252	Saháranpur	877
Mainpuri	1,831	Aligarh	624
Gorakhpur	1,602
Agra	1,573
Cawnpore	958

(b).—Expenditure.

51. Under the head "Salaries of officers and their establishment" apart from the High Court there is an increase of Rs. 11,421. The cost of process-serving has scarcely altered, and there are no other important changes in so much of the cost of subordinate courts as is shewn in the statement.

52. In the High Court the charges are shewn to have risen by Rs. 52,550. This is due to the entertainment of an additional Puisne Judge and to the furlough allowances of one Judge. The High Court deficit is shewn as Rs. 2,71,852 against Rs. 1,85,397 in 1892.

(c).—General.

53. Statement G, is a statement of certain items of income and expenditure of civil courts in the North-Western Provinces for 1893; it does not profess to be a statement of the profit and loss on the administration of civil justice. It shews an excess of income over expenditure, which compares thus with the figures for previous years.
